TEACHING LOAD REASSIGNMENT GRANT AGREEMENT 2021-2022

Ashland University and Jennifer Groman hereby agree to the following:

- 1. The faculty recipient is hereby granted a three credit-hour course reassignment for the Spring Term of 2022
- 2. The recipient is not eligible to receive any supplemental contracts during the grant period.
- 3. The recipient will submit a written reflection to the Assistant Provost containing a copy (draft) of the scholarly project or creative activity or other appropriate form of documentation, along with a discussion of outcomes of the scholarly project or creative activity or containing a copy (draft) of a written product by May 31, 2022.
- 4. The recipient will share specified outcomes in writing and/or through oral presentations with the campus community and/or the community-at-large in the year following the grant period.
- 5. The recipient agrees to remain at Ashland University for at least one year following receipt of the Teaching Load Reassignment Grant award. Recipients who leave the University less than one year following the grant shall be expected to return grant funds.

Som Janet	6-2-202
Provost // /	Date
Jennifer L. Gro Faculty Member,	man 6/02/2021
Faculty Member, Amy
Department Chair,	6/3/21 Date
Academic Dean,	Date

*Please return to the Provost's office