

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR

Gifted Children 67th Annual Convention

Home

Search for...

Search

Login

On Demand

829462 - Empowering Gifted Students Through Self-Advocacy

Presenter: Deb Douglas – GT Carpe Diem

On-Demand

On Demand

830650 - The Bully's Face: Using Art to Understand Bullying in Gifted Children

Presenter: Jennifer L. Groman – Ashland University

On-Demand

On Demand

830884 - Developing Executive Functioning Skills Through Metacognition

Presenter: Emily Kircher-Morris – Mind Matters Podcast

Presenter: Madeline Kaleel – Unlimited Potential Counseling & Learning Center

On-Demand

On Demand

830886 - Anticipating and Addressing Asynchrony

Presenter: Colleen S. Boyle – Bexley City Schools

On-Demand

On Demand

830906 - Preventing Underachievement Before It Begins

Back to Top

Social & Emotional Development

On-Demand

Social & Emotional Development

830650 - The Bully's Face: Using Art to Understand Bullying in Gifted Children

📅 On Demand

Presenter(s)

Jennifer L. Groman

Assistant Professor
Ashland University
Wooster, OH, United States

🔒 Slides

This session presents research and practical work from “The Bully’s Face: Using Art to Understand Bullying in Gifted Children,” which appeared in GCT. The presenter discusses the gifted child as victim and bully, and shares her process of using depth psychology, visual arts, and writing with students to gain insight into how the bully and victim think and feel.

🔒 Evaluation

🔒 Video

👥 Attendees 16